

eOrganizer

eOrganizer is an industry-independent task management system. The application has been created for different industries suitable variations. Industries are the social and health care, the environment, cleaning, and real estate, media, ICT, education, construction and maintenance, Sport and the Voluntary and conferences and major events management. Job site procedures performed, documentation within the meaning eOrganizer tool, the employee can save the task or work to the time spent, action taken and any additional information. Data is entered using the Internet-connected device. After this information is transferred immediately to a service-limes, a system administrator can compile the reports in various positions, as well as those used in cost and time.

The application can be used to connect each task internet link, image, attachment, text, stakeholders, suppliers, the necessary resources, the contract price or an hourly rate.

You can apply a number of criteria made in the future tasks and scheduled tasks.

Intelligent search criteria (task status, and the type of reference, the task title, location, time period, priority, resource, group, editor) employee, the work of the designer, the coordinator or leader of the group) to find an employee, a group of contractors, subcontractors and others actors' roles and their current situation.

Customers can order their preferred services with eOrganizer

When a customer orders a service with eOrganizer he sees how the work is progressing (to do lists: registered, on work, ready, etc.). The service provider can see how the resources or subcontractors get the job done.

Recognition of the tasks also benefit customers, subcontractors and partners

The information log on directly to the server. Link on the Internet can be connected to an external web application that contains the task (for example, Internet-based conference system, Web conference system). The photo can be shown to change before and after correction.

Number of advantages - a tool the employee, group coordinator or department supervisor

By using eOrganizer user can write jobsites time and the measures taken to charge customers more efficiently, and found free from their network resources, distributed tasks for the team, taking into account the special needs. Application is sufficient for using an Internet connection and a web browser with your smartphone, computer or tablet. For system maintenance, the controller is able to manage the content of the system, for example, resources, suppliers, locations, or by adding tasks. The administrator can define itself to its field of special features and organization changes, various software elements can be modified according to circumstances.

Mofea Oy

Po Box 516

20101 Turku, Finland

<http://www.mofea.fi>

Email: mofea@mofea.fi